

Newsletter

Issue 11

Term 3

Week 4

Diary Dates

TERM 3

Week 5

Mon 20/8-Fri 24/8

Book Week

Tues 21/8

Special Lunch

Wed 22/8

Choir; Magic Millions

Rehearsal

Fri 24/8

Dress Up Parade

Girls Netball

SAPSASA

Week 6

Tues 28/8

Volleyball Clinics

Years 4-7

Wed 29/8-Thu 30/8

Father's Day Stall

Thurs 30/8

Boys Soccer SAPSASA

Fri 31/8

School Closure

Week 7

Mon 3/9

Pupil Free Day

A Message from the Principal

Dear Parents and Caregivers,

This week we have been celebrating National Support Staff Week. Our students, teachers and leadership team have enjoyed spoiling our team of SSOs!! We decided to link in with next week's Book Week theme (Find your treasure) with our own focus, 'You are our treasures'. On Tuesday, our teachers and leadership team hosted a morning tea and each SSO had to decipher clues to find a treasure box that had been filled with goodies from classes and teachers. On Wednesday, Room 17 lead an assembly and during this time our SSOs were acknowledged and celebrated for the work they do at our school.

As a site, we are immensely thankful for the work our wonderful group of SSOs engage in. They lead and support in so many ways including, working with students with learning disabilities and learning difficulties, collaborating with students and teachers in reading groups, managing finances and school administrative tasks, giving first aid and medication, managing our library including sourcing and cataloguing of resources and managing information technology in our school. We also appreciate the ways they care for and show kindness and empathy towards our students, parents, caregivers and staff.

Regards,

Mandy Alwan

P I
K
A C
H
U

B
U
R
G
E
R
S

Room 19's Directed Drawings

L
L A M
A S

M
E
L
O N
S

Who Stole the Treasure Chest?

*Newsflash! Newsflash!
Who can it be?
Someone stole the treasure chest,
But, for sure, it wasn't me.*

*There's going to be a costume parade,
All students do their best,
But they need to watch the teachers,
I heard one stole the treasure chest.*

*And if it was one of the teachers,
They'd be carrying a heavy load,
But I honestly don't believe, that it was Mrs. Coad.*

*And I really don't believe,
That it could be Sharon,
She's always happy, bubbly and bright,
And her clothes from colours aren't barren.*

*Do you think it could be...hmm,
No, I really don't want to think that,
But she's talented and very fit,
Perhaps... maybe... just maybe... it was Nat*

*I would never accuse a Crows fan,
So I don't wish to bad mouth her,
And she barracks for the best footy team,
No, it just couldn't be Miss Crowther.*

*Could it be someone who...
Has a really good chance to look,
To plan, to plot
and to scheme,
Where to hide treasure amongst the books?*

*I would hardly think it's Miss Kristen,
Who teaches children so small,
Because she would certainly tell them,
It's not right to steal at all.*

*However, in the next classroom,
There's Mrs Powell and Mrs G,
Where no-one else can see.*

*Now ... I work with this teacher,
I love to help her every day,
So I couldn't imagine it would be Viv,
But then..... Where there's a will, there's a way.*

*It could be another teacher,
And to think this... isn't nice,
But she's in and out of classrooms,
Perhaps there's an opportunity for Miss Trezise.*

*Now I really have my doubts,
And it sort of .... makes me frown,
Because she's such a lovely lady,
It could never be Mrs Brown.*

*Could it be one of the male teachers?
What about Mr Stasi,
With his muscles and strong physique,
He could lift the chest
so easily.*

*You know I don't like to gamble,
And I'm not much of a punter,
But with that beard, he looks .... Well suspicious,
Keep your eyes on Mr Hunter.*

*There's another lovely teacher,
Who to speak to, is a pleasure,
But part of her name suggests she's Cross.
Was she Cross enough to steal the treasure?*

*I should mention Karrendi's School Counsellor,
His name sounds the same as bury,
That's what you do with a treasure chest,
Isn't it, Mr Perri?*

*Let's not forget Mrs Alcorn,
The Principal and Head of the school,
For her to steal the treasure chest,
Would simply not be...cool.*

*There's another group of people,
Each one is an S.S.O.
They may know where the treasure is,
But .... Would they let anyone know?*

*So students of Karrendi,
I say this without much ado,
Who do you think stole the treasure chest?
The decision is now up to you.*

*Good luck with your investigation,
For this is yours to own,
Remember, whoever stole the treasure chest,
May NOT have worked alone.*

By Lyn Jennings 16/08/2018

Come along and join our Book Week Parade!

Students can dress as their favourite book character or if they have a really good imagination, something that relates to this year's theme, 'Find Your Treasure'.

Be part of the parade;

Friday morning

24th August

In the Gym

Prizes to be won!!!